

WWII Battlefield Tours

On the 1st September 1939, the German battleship Schleswig-Holstein fired the first shots at Westerplatte, Gdansk, marking the beginning of WWII. A week later Warsaw was besieged. On the 1st August 1944, the Polish resistance launched the heroic yet tragic Warsaw Uprising to liberate the city from German Nazi occupation.

- Embark on a journey of remembrance and discovery as we visit the key locations in both cities on our unique walking tours.
- Bearing witness to the Holocaust: the Warsaw Ghetto and Treblinka
- Specialist guides, whose knowledge and passion will enhance your experience and challenge you to think critically
- Visits to the Museums of the Second World War and The Warsaw Rising

4 nights from £345
including flights

Optional: Cold War, Solidarity and the end of the Soviet Union

07595 89 34 18

info@holocauststudytours.co.uk
www.holocauststudytours.co.uk

@holocauststudy

holocauststudytours